

Lot 17

James D. Allen is name on map.

1. James D. Allen was born in Gloucester on June 9, 1823 to Solomon Allen and Abigail Flowers. He died in Gloucester on December 28, 1888. He married Ann P. Atkinson, daughter of John and Mary Atkinson, on February 11, 1834 in Gloucester.
2. Ann P. Atkinson Allen was born on March 4, 1811 in Gloucester. She died in Gloucester on December 19, 1904.
3. George Davis Allen, Civil War Veteran, son of James D. and Ann Allen. He was born in Gloucester on July 7, 1838 and died there on September 13, 1880. He has a good monument, the only one in this plot.
4. Joseph Anstess married James and Ann's daughter, Augusta Ann Allen on March 19, 1858. She died young and he remarried. He died in the Almshouse and it is likely that he is buried in the Allen plot. He was born in England in 1822 and died in Gloucester on April 1, 1910.
5. Helen M "Nellie" Anstess was the daughter of Joseph Anstess and his second wife, Naomi Horton. She was born in Gloucester on July 1, 1878 and died there on June 25, 1897.
6. Martha Maria Allen Robinson was born to James and Ann in Gloucester on November 21, 1847 and died in Gloucester on July 29, 1878.
7. Emma Allen was born in Gloucester to James and Ann on May 1, 1851. She died in Gloucester on December 2, 1864.
8. James and Ann had a son, John James who was born on October 2, 1836 and was lost at sea on October 6, 1860. Their daughter Augusta is buried in Oak Grove. She was born December 7, 1834 and dies September 30, 1867. A son named Edward Henry was born June 7, 1840 and died in the Civil War in 1865. Their daughter Frances was born on June 7, 1840, married George Clark, died November 11, 1860, and is buried near by in plot 14.